INTRODUCTION

Condominium living is quite different than living in a traditional single-family home. A condominium has many advantages, including the performance by others of routine tasks like landscaping, mowing the grass and maintaining the exteriors of our buildings. Each owner shares in the use of common elements such as the pools at a much lower cost compared to individual ownership. Along with the advantages come some disadvantages. These include a more confined living space and more of an obligation to our neighbors and friends to be considerate of noise and other activities, hence the need for some basic rules.

Each of us collectively shares the responsibility for maintaining our community. To carry out those responsibilities you have elected a Board of Directors who are, in turn, responsible to the community for enforcing and revising, when necessary, the Rules and Regulations as required by your Tra Vigné Condominium Documents.

The Rules and Regulations are an extension of the Vineyards Community covenants modified as necessary to suit our Tra Vigné Condominium Association. Legally, you agreed to comply with all provisions of these documents when you purchased your units. The requirement for compliance flows through to members of your family, guests, and lessees (if any). As an owner, you share in the liability, which goes hand-in-hand with compliance.

Each of us is expected to share and enjoy these facilities with our neighbors in peace and tranquility and with due consideration. The largest of these, and the most visible, are the common elements over which we have collective (not individual) responsibility and control.

Your condominium Board of Directors meetings are open to all members. Please attend them whenever possible and please join one or more of our committees as we work to make Tra Vigné the best possible environment for us to enjoy our lives.

VINEYARDS GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

The Vineyards is the overall community in which Tra Vigné is a part. It has its own master set of covenants. Each of us is bound to comply with those covenants, except as modified for our own community. We may therefore extend the language of our own rules to go beyond those of the Vineyards.

COMMON SENSE AND GOOD NEIGHBORS

As in all things, common sense and neighborliness always apply. PLEASE DO NOT EXPECT THE BOARD TO LEGISLATE ON EVERY LITTLE DETAIL. In the absence of rules on a subject, we are all expected to apply our best judgment and BE CONSIDERATE OF THE RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF OUR NEIGHBORS FOR THE PEACEFUL ENJOYMENT OF OUR COMMUNITY. UNIT OWNERS (THEIR LESSEES, FAMILIES, GUESTS, AND INVITEES) MUST NOT PERMIT ANY USE OR PRACTICE THAT UNREASONABLY DISTURBS OR ANNOYS THE OTHER RESIDENTS OR THAT INTERFERES WITH THE PEACEFUL USE AND POSSESSION OF CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY. Nuisances, immoral, careless, or illegal acts that would increase risk or liability of The Tra Vigné Association or property, as well as violations of these Rules and Regulations are strictly prohibited.

CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

The Rules and Regulations referenced herein supplement the amended and restated Declaration of Master Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, By-laws and Articles of Incorporation for Vineyards Community Association Inc. and Declaration of Condominium of Tra Vigné, the Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws.

LEASING

Notice: An owner intending to lease his unit; in the owner's absence, must give to the management company: (1) written notice of each intention on the "Application" form furnished by the management company; (2) a copy of the proposed lease at least twenty (20) days prior to the proposed transaction. The Board may reasonably require other information from the unit owner as it reviews these two required items.

Approval: After the required notice and all information requested has been received, the Board or its designee shall approve or disapprove the proposed lease within twenty (20) days. If the Board or its designee neither approves nor disapproves within the time stated above, such failure to act shall be deemed the equivalent of approval.

Disapproval: Approval of a unit lease agreement shall be withheld if a majority of the Board so votes and in such case, the occupancy shall not be permitted. THE BOARD MAY NOT APPROVE THE OCCUPANCY BY A LESSEE IF THE PAYMENT OF ANY ASSESSMENTS FOR THAT UNIT ARE IN ANY WAY DELINQUENT.

Failure to Give Notice: If proper notice is not given, the Association, at its election, may approve or disapprove the occupancy of the lessee without prior notice. If it disapproves, the Association shall proceed if it received notice on the date of such disapproval; however, the proposed occupant may provide the Board with the required notice and request reconsideration.

Any lease entered without approval or in violation of the above provisions shall at the option of the Board be voided and the Board shall have the right to evict the occupant with five (5) days' notice without securing consent to such eviction from the unit owner. Any and all expenses associated with the application of these restrictions and/or the eviction shall be paid by the unit owner.

Application: Applications for authority to occupy a unit shall be made to the management company on such forms and include such terms as the Board may from time to time provide. That legal responsibility for paying condominium assessments may not be delegated to the lessee. An application fee of $150.00 must be included with each application to lease.

Term and Frequency of Occupancy: No unit may be leased (when the unit owner is not present) more than three (3) times per calendar year. No unit may be leased for a period of less than ninety (90) days. No subleasing or assignment of lease or occupancy rights is allowed unless the sub-lessee or sub-tenants are approved by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Occupancy in Absence of Lessee: If a lessee absents himself from the unit for any period of time during the lease term, his immediate family already in residence may continue to occupy the unit and may have house guests subject to all the restrictions in Sections 23 and 13.4 above. If the lessee and all the immediate family members mentioned in the foregoing sentence are absent, no other person may occupy the unit except the unit owner.

Occupancy During Lease Term: No one but the lessee, his family members within the first degree of relationship by blood, adoption or marriage, and their spouses and guests may occupy the unit. The total number of overnight occupants of a leased unit is limited to two (2) persons per bedroom.

Lessee Pets: The Tra Vigné Declaration expressly prohibits pets in leased units.

LANAIS

Clothing, beach towels, and bathing suits shall not be hung out to dry in any fashion on lanais.

No carpeting of any kind may be affixed to concrete or wood flooring surfaces exposed to the elements without prior written board approval.

Propane gas or propane grills are not allowed on lanais, driveways or inside garages due to the associated combustion hazard. Florida law prohibits storage of propane gas in garages or any enclosed structures.

No flags or signs, or the like shall be displayed on the lanai.

When the unit owner is absent from the unit for thirty (30) days or more, all movable items such as furniture, plants, tables, lamps and etc. must be removed from their lanai and entrance way, and placed inside their unit unless protected by closed and approved hurricane shutters. This is especially important during hurricane season but is applicable at all times because of weather phenomena.

ENTRANCE WAYS/WALKWAYS/MAILBOXES.

Entranceways and/or walkways are to be clear of toys, bicycles, strollers, baskets, or anything that obstructs free and clear access.

No banners or other items may be hung, posted, or otherwise displayed on or in entrance of walkways, with the exception of decorative wreaths or ornamental displays on the entrance door.

Such decorative items, of course, must be of good taste and must not impede access or egress.

NOTHING IS TO BE ATTACHED TO/OR DISPLAYED FROM THE MAILBOX POST.

HOLIDAY DECORATIONS

Other than white or clear lights at the front entrance to Tra Vigné, no holiday decorations are to be displayed on any common property. Holiday decorations of a personal nature are limited to inside the homeowner's unit.

COMPLAINTS AND REQUESTS FOR ACTION

MINORS AND CHILDREN

It shall be the responsibility of the unit owners, lessees, occupants and guests to properly supervise their children at all times. While we all love visits from our grandchildren, please keep in mind that, unlike single family houses, our neighbors are very close by.

Tampering or adjusting the irrigation system is not permitted. Collier County dictates that we water no more than 2 days a week and that we do so during the night time hours.
